JACK ALGIERS GOOD CITIZENSHIP AWARD

The purpose of this award is to recognize individuals, organizations, or the businesses in the New London community who have demonstrated acts of good citizenship which have a positive impact on New London's quality of life, especially in terms of public safety. The award shall be presented annually in the spring, either at the April Council Meeting or as part of the Chamber of Commerce's Community Awards Banquet.

The Chief of Police shall select the selection committee. The Chief of Police shall function as the staff liaison to coordinate the selection process.

Nominations shall be submitted to the Chief of Police on a form provided by the City (see attached). Any resident of the City may make nominations for consideration.

The selection committee shall consider the following criteria when reviewing nominations for this award.

1. City employees shall be eligible for this award if the City employee was involved with bettering the community outside of their employment with the City of New London.
2. Members of any City Commission or Board and elected officials may be considered after they no longer serve in that capacity, provided they have otherwise demonstrated outstanding leadership and vision of progress while serving in such a position for the municipality.
3. The nominee must have performed some act or series of acts demonstrating good citizenship as a member of the New London community, which has a positive effect on public safety and/or community. Qualifying acts may include:
 - demonstrating superiority, innovation, or leadership in a particular field which brings favor or acclaim to the entire community
 - improving and enhancing the image of the New London community as evidenced by generous donation of time, talents, or resources
 - undertaking efforts to promote the goodwill, fellowship, and/or quality of life enjoyed in the New London community
 - demonstrating a deep and sincere caring for the under-privileged, handicapped, elderly, or youth as manifested in donation of time and talents to service work
 - advancing partnerships within the community and displaying a cooperative attitude in developing working relationships for the betterment of the citizens of New London
 - performing a valuable, behind-the-scene support which results in the successful achievement of a project or activity
